

Pursuant to Colorado's Open Meeting Laws, the Colorado Commission of Indian Affairs (Commission) will provide a space for public comment during quarterly meetings. The public does not PARTICIPATE in the decision-making; rather, the public PROVIDES INPUT to the governing body. Below are guidelines to follow when participating in public comment:

TIME CONSIDERATION:

1. A time limit of two minutes per comment will be enforced. All speakers will be held to this time limit.
2. Speakers may not allot their time to other participants.

PUBLIC COMMENT GUIDELINES:

1. Please state your name, title, and organization.
2. All comments should be addressed to the Chair of the Commission.
3. This is a time for the community to provide input to the Commission. The Commission will not engage in dialogue at this time.
4. Staff will be responsible for recording input or questions to provide responses at a later date. Do not call on staff to provide public answers on the spot.
5. Individuals who are not heard during public comment are encouraged to provide written comments to the Commission.
